

A Social Story

My Mouth

I

use

my

mouth

for

eating

But

not

for

biting

**!

'Cause

biting

hurts

friends

And

it

makes

people

sad.

I

use

my

mouth

for

talking

But

not

for

biting!

'Cause

biting

hurts

friends

And

it

makes

people

scared

I

use

my

mouth

for

singing

But

not

for

biting!

'Cause

biting

hurts

friends

And

it

makes

people

sore!

I

use

my

mouth

for

smiling

But

not

for

biting!

'Cause

biting

hurts

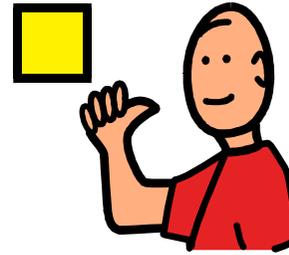

friends

And it makes

people

angry!

If

I

use

my

mouth

for

eating,

talking,

singing

and

smiling...

My

friends,

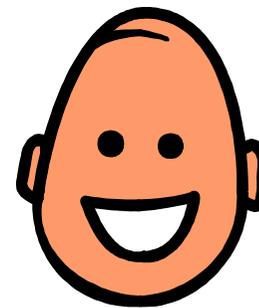

teacher

and

I

will be

happy!

A Social Story

"My Mouth" should be read after every instance of spitting occurring in the classroom.

The story should be read at the students desk.

If appropriate remove any distractions from the students desk. The Social Story should be kept in an easily accessible place.